

NICOLE PEGLOW

Nikki Peglow's vision and artistic expression are related to hair & its' impact on the entertainment and fashion worlds. As an Art and Design Graduate, she began via textile study, painting, surface design and a concentration in theatrical hair and makeup design/application. Being well versed in exhibiting mixed media pieces and using hair as her canvas, these skills give her work diversity in coloring and styling hair. Gallery installation and live painting, stage/wig work for ballet and theater, music videos, Ocean Drive's 15th Anniversary Gala, a collection for Art Basel Miami Beach, hand created hair sculptures commissioned for one of the infamous P. Diddy parties are all part of her vast portfolio. Nikki currently resides in Miami Beach as a Guest Artist for Alfaparf Milano. In addition to local fashion and production work, Nikki spends her free time providing personalized, detail intensive services to celebrity clients, teaching workshops, learning new techniques, and creating art. Nikki's continues to offer the industry edgy, yet glamorous creative solutions.
